

Business and Labour History Group Meeting:

The Practice of Business History

The aim of the meeting is to bring together researchers with an interest in all aspects of the conduct of business history, including social, economic and methodological perspectives.

Researchers are invited to present papers for discussion, and to propose themed discussion sessions they have an interest in leading.

Please send paper and session proposals to Dr. Simon Mowatt, coordinator of the Business and Labour History Group at simon.mowatt@aut.ac.uk by Monday 16 August 2010.

Paper presentations should be of around 20 minutes in length. A selection of papers may be published in Enterprise and Innovation.
