

Building Alliances

By and with Women Workers

Victoria University and the ACTU invite you to a public forum on July 18 @ 5pm.

What are women's roles at the intersections of feminism, union politics and global relations?

Suzanne Franzway and Mary Margaret Fonow connect the diversity of women's experiences with the innovative ways women workers and unionists are building the future of feminist politics within local and global union movements.

Their focus is on union feminists mobilizing at multiple sites, issues of wages and equity, child care campaigns, work-life balance, and queer organizing.

About the Presenters

Suzanne Franzway is the director of the Research Centre for Women's Studies and a professor of sociology and gender studies at the University of South Australia.

Mary Margaret Fonow is the director of the School of Social Transformation and a professor of women and gender studies at Arizona State University.

When: Monday 18 July, 2011

Time: 5pm – 6.30pm

Where: Victoria University, Room 9,02, Level 9, 300 Flinders Street, Melbourne

RSVP: Smilka Jakobi Email Smilka.Jakobi@vu.edu.au

RSVP: Please RSVP by Thursday 14 July

Phone: 9919 1295

Presented by Victoria University and Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU)

For further information contact Annie Delaney: annie.delaney@vu.edu.au

